

PhD Opportunity in Distributed Systems

Are you interested in doing a PhD in the School of Computing at consider the Distributed Systems and Mobile Agents research group? The current research areas include:

- Security. Intelligent intrusion detection.
- Encryption. New algorithms for enhanced security.
- Agent Technology. New networking models using static and mobile agents.
- Mobile Computing. New models for mobile computing.
- Reuse. Creation of models for reusable and distributed content.

Details: www.dcs.napier.ac.uk/~bill/res_main.html

Contact: Bill Buchanan, School of Computing.
+44 (0)131 455 4365
w.buchanan@napier.ac.uk

Requirements: Strong motivation for excellence, and a good Honours Degree or MSc in Computing, IT, Electronics, or related subject.